

The proposal to Place RF on local power lines for communication purposes will surely create havoc with the Amateur Radio abilities to utilize licensed capabilities, and interfere with Amateur Radio Emergency Operations as well in our communities. But surely you must know that. God save us from the frequency meddlers and almighty buck hunters. Jake.